

EQUITY

We are invested in advancing equitable services for all children, youth and families, and staff. We recognize both advocacy and education about equity is important and for the success of marginalized communities. Collaboration with the communities we work with informs our lens.

Respect

Dignity

Culture of Accountability

Learning Experiences

Janus
youth programs